

Welcome to the Harrods Hill Neighborhood Association!

The Harrods Hill Neighborhood Association is a non-profit organization of resident members working together to promote, preserve, and improve our neighborhood as a desirable residential area. The dues are $35.00 per year. (Article V, Section 2, $25.00 to the General Fund and $10.00 to the Planning and Zoning from each member's dues.)

Members enjoy many benefits, including:

- A DIRECTORY of your neighbors, including babysitters, lawn care, etc. (ADVERTISING available!)
- NEWSLETTER and EMAIL updates with the latest developments
- SOCIAL EVENTS for all ages (Easter Egg Hunt, Picnic in the Park, 4th of July Parade and party, etc.)
- Spring and Fall GARAGE SALES
- HOLIDAY Decoration Contest
- Neighborhood IMPROVEMENTS, such as mowing the front entrance and planting street trees
- Active ZONING Committee, which monitors plans for surrounding properties
- Active EDUCATION Committee, which keeps updated on redistricting, school board decisions, etc.
- WEBSITE: harrodshill.org

LAST YEAR'S SPECIAL EVENTS INCLUDED . . . . Gave out 100+ Tickets to UK Women's basketball game at Rupp Arena, Memorial and Labor Day parties at the pool, Kids' Day of making valentines for veterans and collecting personal items for veterans
